

VOL. XV

postage paid at

Every other Friday except monthly July, August. $3.50 per year. 126 E. Roosevel(No. November 3, 1961

Rabbis Lazowick, Shulman Speakers For New Series

"The Rabbis Speak," a provocative and interesting discussion series, will resume on Sunday, Nov. 12, at 8:15 p. m. at the Phoenix

Jewish Community Center. Rabbi Milton Shulman of Temple Sholom and Rabbi Maurice Lazowick of Har Zion Congregation, Scottsdale, will discuss "Our Jewish Heritage" and "What Is It That We Are Expected to Give to Our Children?"

"The Rabbis Speak" was a successful part of the Center's 1960-61 program. The public is invited to hear a stimulating report from our rabbis in regard to this basic question.

There is no charge.

GOLDA MEIR HONORS MRS. ROOSEVELT AS WOMEN START FALL BOND DRIVE

Mrs. Golda Meir (left), Minister for Foreign Affairs of the State of Israel, presented a special Israel stamp award to Mrs. Franklin D. sistance to the campaign for State of Israel Bonds. The presentation

Rabbi Plotkin Has Role In Reform Group Sessions

NEW YORK-A national code of professional practices designed to assist Jewish communities in the United States and to develop prote standards of employment of teachers in their religious schools was approved at a meeting of the board of governors of the American Association for Jewish Education.

JTA News

Briefs

Warsaw Tale Of Heroes 1st In Film Series

Arnold Horwitch, chairman, ha announced that the first in the Film Classics Series sponsored by the Phoenix Jewish Community the Phoenix Jewish Community Center will be presented on Sun-day, Nov. 5, at 8 p.m. The first film in the 1961-62 sea-son will be "Border Street," prize winner at the Venice International Film Festival, 1948. "Border Street" paints in broad, heroic strokes the tragic tale of the hand-ful of Warsaw Jews, remnants of ful of Warsaw Jews, remnants of almost half-a-million co-religionists, who-herded into a ghetto by German occupation forces in 1943 prior to planned extermination-decided to take up arms and die fighting. The New York Times said, "Border Street is bound to disturb the deep emotions of any audience of perception and good will . . . ear-nest and fiercely sincere film . . . stirs the imagination."

The New York Herald Tribune said, "Carries a punch . . . the acting of the children is superb."

"Border Street" is endorsed by the Protestant Motion Picture Council, American Jewish Con-gress, and the General Federation of Women's Clubs. There is a do-nation of $1 are particed with nation of $1 per person. The public is invited

Verdict Due On Eichmann This Month

JERUSALEM, (JTA)—The long-awaited judgment, in the trial of former Gestapo Col. Adolf Eich-mann is tentatively scheduled to be handed down this month the Government Press Office Indicated. The tentative date was disclosed in connection with a decision by the press office to open negotiations with overseas film and television with overseas film and television companies to record the verdict. Capital Cities Broadcasting Com-pany, the American firm which televised the lengthy trial from its start last April 11 to its end on Aug. 14, will not be among the bidders because of financial losses it incurred

Rabbi Albert Plotkin, spiritual leader of Temple Beth Israel, has office was setting the same terms office was setting the same terms for filming the delivery of the ver-dict as those on which Capital Cities obtained the rights to tele-vising the trial. The terms include a non-profit

TAXMAN NAMED LEADER OF ISRAEL BONDS DRIVE Phil Taxman, prominent community leader, has accepted the general chairmanship of the Phoenix campaign for State of Israel Bonds. Taxman, noted for his leadership in civic affairs and community enterprises, said he had agreed to serve the campaign because "I regard the strengthening of Israel as indispensable to the fight for universal freedom.' The annual campaign here takes on added significance in 1961, Taxman pointed out, since it coincides with Israel's 13th anniversary. Plans call for a city-wide dinner celebrating the event on Dec. 10 at the Hotel Westward Ho. To enhance this gala occasion, Jack Benny, world-famous comed-ian, will be the honored guest. IN WELCOMING the news of

Arizona State Library

Capitol Bldg. Phoenix, Ariz.

> Taxman's acceptance, Honorary Chairman Charles Korrick said he was confident that "In Phil Taxman's capable hands Phoenix will move forward to record achieve-ment in this vital area of investment in Israel's economic future." Taxman pointed out that the great majority of the proceeds of the Israel Bond campaign remain in the United States to pay for reads, and services required by goods and services required by Israel.

Taxman said Israel spent $102 million in the United States for goods and services during the first six months of 1961. In the same period, goods and services imported from Israel by the United States totalled $32 million he said. The 1961 drive for Israel Bonds seeks a total of $80,000,000 for the development of every sector of Israel's economy, he pointed out. "ONE OF THE MOST significant results of the Israel Bond cam-paign," Taxman said, "has been paign," Taxman said, "has been the increasing trade between Israel and the United States with the and the United States, with the balance substantially in favor of the United States. Those who buy Israel Bonds are not only providing economic aid for the new democracy of Israel, but are also helping indirectly to stimulate American

8:15 p. m. in the Temple Audi-torium, 10th Avenue and Flower. two countries is indicative of the warm friendship which unites them. It reflects a common dedication to the cause of freedom, an Jack Williams, former Phoenix mayor and prominent radio and tion is basic to a joint effort in newspaper man, will introduce Mr. defense of democracy throughout the establishment of irrigation projects and the modernization of agriculture, the building of roads, harbors and railways, the exploita-tion of mineral resources, and the construction of more than a quar-ter-million homes for newcomers.

"DURING THE coming decade, Israel Bond funds must continue to make possible the development of the entire country, with special emphasis on the Negev, Israel's center of future settlement and economic growth." Information concerning the Dec

10 dinner may be secured from Israel Bond headquarters, 301 Arizona Savings Building, AL 2-4363. Korrick and Barnett E. Marks are honorary chairmen for the

Sisterhood Sets

PHIL TAXMAN

Phoenix drive. Taxman's co-chairmen are Harold H. Alpert and Allen Rosenberg. Associate chairmen are M. D. Brown, Sam Drey, Harry Rosenz-weig, Sam Shapiro, and Sam Smith.

Tucson Plans Nursing Home

(From the Arizona Post) TUCSON—Ground is expected to be broken early next spring for the construction of Tucson's Jewish Nursing Home for the Aged.

The $500,000 project became a reality when the Tucson Jewish Community Council was granted $225,000 in federal funds under the Hill-Burton Act.

Granting of the matching federal funds was the last major obstacle before the project. Leaders in the Nursing Home Project say it will take about three months for acceptibility

Project say it will take about three months for completion of archi-tects plans and then bids will be let for the 40-bed home. Ground will be broken about April 1 at the site near the Tucson Medical Center. The land at Rose-mont and Grant was donated by the Charles Wilson family. Benjamin N. Brook, director of the Jewish Community Council, said he believes the home will be in operation by late 1962.

J.N.H.A.C. Chapter Will Hear Rubinow

The Phoenix chapter of Jewish National Home for Asthmatic Children will meet Sunday, Nov. 19, at 8 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center. Guest speaker will be Dr. Leo Rubinow, who will show a film. Mrs. Benjamin Hoffman is pro-gram chairman. The public is invited. Phoenix J.N.H.A.C. has also planned a luncheon for noon Wed-

On Nov. 12 William L. Shirer, foreign correspondent and author, will open the 1961-62 Temple Beth Israel Forum Series on Sunday, Nov. 12, at trade overseas. 8:15 p. m. in the Temple Audi-His subject will be "Prospects For Permanent Peace." shirer to his Phoenix audience, it was announced by Gilmore Kahn-ago, the Israel Bond drive has weiler, chairman of the T e m p l e raised $500 million . . . and made possible the expansion of industry, Forum Committee.

Mr. Shirer, who has lectured ex-tensively throughout the United States for many years, will cover in his address some of the national and international problems now before the American people.

MILLIONS of Americans have listened to his broadcasts and read his best-selling books, "The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich" and 'Berlin Diaries."

A reporter whose radio voice from Berlin became familiar to Americans in the days of Hitler, he lived and worked in Europe and Asia for two decades and still goes back to the Continent regularly. Graduating from Coe College, Iowa, in 1925, he determined to be come a journalist and if possible a writer. He left America in 1925 on a cattleboat for Europe, ex-pecting to stay abroad two months.

WILLIAM L. SHIRER Shirer Opens Forum Series

NEW YORK-The Jewish population in New York City, comprising 2,000,000 in 1957, will rise to 2,136,000 by 1975, according to a survey released here by the Protestant Council. Percentagewise, however, in comparison to the city's total population, Jews will make up 25.6 per cent of the total population by 1975, compared with 26.4 per cent in 1957.

TORONTO - The square on which Toronto's new $25,000,000 City Hall is being built has been renamed Nathan Phillips Square in honor of Toronto's Jewish mayor. Phillips, who has been mayor since 1955, was proposed for the honor by a motion in city council in recognition of his efforts in behalf of the new city hall. The area previously was known as Albert Square.

NEW YORK—A 2-year-old Re-form congregation, which still does not have a home of its own, was disclosed to be using the fa-cilities of four Protestant churches for its various func-tions. The four churches which have extended the helping hand to the first Jewish congregation to the first Jewish congregation in Brooklyn Heights are the First Unitarian Church, the First Presbyterian Church, the Plymouth Church and Spencer Memorial Presbyterian Church.

JOHANNESBURG-Seven Jews were among the successful can-didates elected to Parliament in last week's elections, according to the final tabulations completed here. They are Dr. E. L. Fisheg, Major E. B. Isaacs, L. B. Taurog, A. Gorshel, S. Em-din, Mrs. Helen Suzman and S.

aton Park.

The UAHC is the central congregational body of Reform Judaism in the Western Hemisphere with 630 synagogues representing a combined membership of more than 1,000,000.

Rabbi Plotkin will deliver the invocation for a workshop on Sun-day, Nov. 12, on the topic of Finance — Congregations Established Prior to 1947."

The theme for this year's con-vention is "Judaism and Democracy."

Refugee Work Aided By Sweden

GENEVA (JTA) - The Swedish government approved a grant of 100,000 kroner ($20,000) to Ort to aid the organization in carrying out its work among refugees. Although Ort maintains no schools in Swed-en, the organization received the grant from the Swedish govern-ment for its vocational programs in other countries.

During the past year, World Ref-ugee Year encouraged fund-raising ugee Year encouraged fund-raising for refugees in Sweden and Ort benefited from two allocations made by the Swedish Refugee Committee. Some 10,000 of the more than 40,000 men, women and young people trained by Ort last year were refugees. B.D.C. FIAS FIGHC On Sept. 30, Phoenix B. B. G. held its annual picnic at South Mountain Park. The evening's ac-tivities included dinner, dancing, and mountain climbing. Miss San-di Harris, recreation chairman, was in charge of the event.

Rabbi Klein To Be Installed Nov. 16 In Mexico City Post

Dr. Carol Klein, former rabbi of Beth El Congregation in Phoenix, servative congregation dedicated will be formally installed as rabbi in June of this year. Rabbi Klein servative congregation, dedicated of Temple Beth El in Mexico City, Mexico, on Thursday evening, Nov. assisted in organizing the new group. Rabbi Klein added that his Rabbi Klein, whose resignation the Phoenix Jewish News of plans for the installation in a letter from "SOME RUMORS have started for the installation in a letter from Mexico City. THE INSTALLATION will take in Phoenix that I, God forbid, had a heart attack. I have been bomplace at the Mexico City Jewish Sport Palace in the form of a festive banquet, Rabbi Klein wrote, and "all dignitaries of the city and government and Jewish com-munity will attend." heart is as good as new."

The terms include a non-profit "public service" clause and one stating that the film must be made available to any company interest-ed in distributing or showing the proceedings. It was also reported that the major United States tele-vision networks might form a pool Sheean.

to cover the costs of televising the verdict proceedings.

Officers Installed By Har Zion

The following officers of Har Zion Congregation of Scottsdale were installed at an installation dinner dance on Oct. 28: Zion

Sol Kotz, president; Bill Greiff, Zell Kaplan, and Sam Singer, vice presidents; Dave Beitman, secre-tary; Sheldon Sternberg, treasurer. Also, board members Jay Dus-hoff, Herb Hecht, Lou Shallit, Irv Marshak, Morris Mindel, Henry Salmon, Leonard Singer, Jack Sheinbein, and Mel Swartz; and honorary past president, Bernard Liszt.

B.B.G. Has Picnic

He stayed for more than cades, his first post being with the Paris office of the Chicago Tribune, where his colleagues were James Thurber, Elliot Paul and Vincent

FOLLOWING assignments in Paris, London, Vienna and India, where he covered the rise of Gandhi, Mr. Shirer was fired by the Chicago Tribune in 1932. Taking a year off, he married the Viennese drama critic and painter, Theresa Stiberitz, at a small fishing village on the coast of Spain, where he and his bride shared a house with Segovia, the famous guitarist.

The following year found him back in Berlin, the start of his long and intimate association with Ger-many. At the invitation of Edward R. Murrow, he joined in 1937 the foreign correspondents staff of the Columbia Broadcasting System,

He remained in Germany until the end of 1940; returned to England in 1943, to France in 1944, to Germany in 1945, and in the spring of that year covered the birth of the United Nations at San Francisco.

HE TOOK 5½ YEARS to sift through the mountains of secret German documents captured by the Allies, preparatory to writing "The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich."

Shirer will be the first in a series of four outstanding lecturers being brought to Phoenix by the Temple Beth Israel Forum Committee. He Beth Israel Forum Committee. He will be followed on Jan. 28 by Vin-cent Price speaking on "The En-joyment of Art;" on Feb. 18 by Dr. J. B. Rhine speaking on "Extrasen-sory Perception — What Can We Make Of It?;" and Harrison Salis-bury, New York Times correspond-ont obsignt the series on March 4 ent, closing the series on March 4 speaking on "The Shook-Up Generation.

Tickets will be sold for the series only. No individual tickets will be available. They may be obtained in Phoenix at the Temple offices, 10th Avenue and Flower, or by call-ing AM 4-4428.

Some 50,000 Israelis are govern-ment employes, nearly one-third of them working in the field of transa heart attack. I have been bom-barded with letters and cards from Phoenix. Please bring it to the at-tention of the community that it is false rumor and that, thank God. and the number of Israel's civil serv-ants has grown over the past dec-ade, their proportion to the general ade, their proportion to the general tention of the community that it is and has new adde, their proportion to the general adde, their proportion to the general population has remained a constant 3 per cent.

Annual Sabbath

The annual Temple Sholom Sis-terhood Sabbath will be held at 8:30 p. m. Friday, Nov. 17, at the 8:30 p. m. Friday, Nov. 17, at the Jewish Community Center. Wel-coming address will be by Mrs. Sam Cohen, Sisterhood president, candlelighting ceremony by Mrs. Jack Sugar, Hebrew prayers by Mrs. Milton Shulman. English por-tion will be read by Mrs. Albert Salzman, Torah blessing by Mrs. Jerry Eisen and Mrs. Julius Fran-ces, and the sermon will be delivces, and the sermon will be deliv-ered by Mrs. Eli Kostant. This special service has been planned by Mrs. Charles Cooper, ceremonial chairman.

All members ase requested to attend and bring their friends.

day, Nov. 15, at Carnation Club Room. Donation is $1.50. A door prize will be awarded. Chairman is Mrs. Sonny Kaye.

Lewkowitz Lodge Meets Nov. 14

Herman Lewkowitz Lodge of B'-nai B'rith will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Jewish Community Center at 8:15 p. m. on Tuesday, Nov. 14.

An interesting program is plan-ned for the evening, and all mem-bers are urged to attend.

All members are asked to com-plete their calls and turn in their ads for Donor Ad Book by the first week of November.

Carpiers.

U.S. Girl Junior Winner In Israel Casals Contest

Miss Toby Ellen Saks, a 19-year-old music student from New York, is congratulated by Maestro Pablo Casals, after gaining first-prize honors in the junior division of the Third Pablo Casals International Violoncello Competition which was concluded in Israel recently. The event, which was sponsored by the Israel Government Tourist Corporation and the America-Israel Cultural Foundation, attracted young cellists from many countries. Miss Saks, who attends the Juilliard School of Music, shared in the cash prizes which totaled more than $9,000.